THE HARNESS RACES OPEN.

The opening day of the Northwestern Breeders' meeting at Washington Park drew a small crowd to see a rather slow but interesting horse show mixed up so badly with the racing program that it was 4:30 before the horses were called out for the 2:40 class, the first event on the card. The day was cool with too much wind for more than fair time and a good track. Hon. Jno. L. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, president of the association, together with Jas. Culbertson and W. F. Taylor, of Ottawa, Ill., were in the stand, the latter as starter.

The two runs were both good and extremely fast from a time standpoint. John Splan landed the 2:40 class with his roan sensation, Newburger, shaving his record from 2:19 $\frac{1}{4}$, in clean-cut style. Walter S. was a much more than fair second. Prince Murat did not finish in the first heat, being stopped by a collision on the upper turn, but was not allowed to start again. It was the winner's fifth winning race in three weeks.

In the Hopeful Stake, Gus Macey had it all to himself with the roan filly Marguerite, she pulling down the money in straight heats. The feature of this race was the fact of its being the fastest three-year-old win of the season. The summaries:

PRINCE LIEF AND BEN BRUSH.

Ben Brush will not again be seen in the West this year. He earned some $20,000 for Mr. Dwyer and won three out of five races on the trip. More than the colt earned was lost in the ring. He met Prince Lief three times, was beaten twice and beat the Prince once—in the Buckeye Stakes at Oakley. Beside that he won the Kentucky and Latonia Derbies. Prince Lief has landed three Derbies, the National, Oakley and Milwaukee and some $3,500. The Prince will go to Detroit for a rest and the Derby there.

BETTING "LAMBS" ARE MANY.

No wonder that the tout flourishes. Some ten days ago DAILY RACING FORM announced that its selections would be sent by wire to subscribers at a low rate. There were thirty intelligent calls from points not reached by the paper in time for a study of its charts, and an affray with the odds-layers within reach. Such calls were supplied. If the selections were followed the bookmakers within the territory they cover were hurt. But there were eleven local applications for the selections and in some cases money was sent by mail for them. It was returned with advice and the information that DAILY RACING FORM was "all out" every morning. The paper holds nothing back. All its information up to press time is printed. It does not seek and will not use so-called "inside information," because its editor believes that racing is normally honest, that its percentage of trickery is no larger and perhaps smaller than that of everyday business. If such an idea was not supported by the regular action of the sport, DAILY RACING FORM wouldn't be published. There are other lines of industry

GISMONDA HURTS THE RING.

The Monday sensation of the racing at Sheffield was a runaway race by Gismonda. The ease with which she left such speedy ones as Millie M and Serena made not only the spectators but the judges open their eyes. Her last race at Sheffield was a poor one, for with 94 pounds up she was last in a field of seven in a three-quarters of a mile race on June 22. Rubberneck, by Himyar, with 88 pounds, was the winner, and Gismonda showed no speed any part of the journey. At first this Gismonda was confused with the filly by Masterpiece—Gladys which has been running at Windsor, and as this one was described as by Himyar—Bravoura it was thought she might be a ringer. She was of course fully identified. The normal odds

The weather was fine, the track fast and the attendance good. The fields in the first three races were large. Two pronounced favorites, Woodland Belle, in the 2-year-old race, backed down from 4 to 1 to 9 to 5, and Treachery, in the third event. In the mile race May Galop and Evanatus were equally favored.

In the opening event Julie an outsider, after being cut off, worked her way through the large field and won handily.

In the maiden 2-year-old race Tully Coulter provided a good looking one in Woodland Belle, and she proved as good as she looked, winning in the fast time of 49 seconds.

In the mile race May Galop made all the running and won, but Mamie G pressed her hard at the finish. Prince fell and in doing so cut Evanatus.

In the last race Nicholas beat Full Measure handily.

Lakeland O'Brien was at Sheffield yesterday.

REQUITAL IS IN GOOD FORM.

Of Requitall's 1896 debut in the Swift Stakes at Coney Island last Wednesday a good critic writes:

"It was Requitall's first race this year and there was much curiosity to see him. He has grown and developed into a splendid big horse, and if not as smoothly made from the saddle back as some would have him, he is built for speed and carries himself like a champion. There was no betting against him as he had but the western colt Oracle and the local candidate Palmerston to beat.

"Cover him up [and take him home]," said Trainer Rowe, who did not want to see his pet stand about in the cold rain. There is a probability that Requitall will get another race or two before he goes to the post for the Realization Stakes on Saturday, July 11. It is a pity he is not eligible for the Tidal at a mile, which will be run on Tuesday next, and for which it is expected both Handspring and Hastings will go to the post."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The remains of Bob Hothersoll were interred Sunday at New York.

The Schnlte-Dill starting machine against which Ed Corrigan moved in a legal way at Oakley is being used at Latonia.

George Rose has secured the field book privilege at Ingleside for the meeting of next winter. He paid $20,000 for it.

The Cincinnati electric light track of Col. Projector Hatch is no more. No bookmakers could be secured Thursday night and the races were declared off.

GEORGE KESSLER, THE SALVATOR—MISS WOODFORD COLT.

for other effort, which finds its own line isn't right. DAILY RACING FORM prints all it gets every morning. That is the reason why the would-be subscribers to Telegraphic Form got their money back. The service is only for those who seek the paper's selection and are not within twelve postal hours of Chicago.

A FEW BARGAINS IN FORM BOOKS

There are for sale at this office eight copies of Complete Form, containing the charts from Little Rock to June 1, with a complete index at $2.50 each. Applicants will be served in order. The books are perfect and made up of sheets from the regular editions of Leather Form. It is Leather Form in serviceable canvas covers.

against her was 30 and 40 to 1, though at some times and in some corners 100 and 150 to 1 was offered against her. A few of the twenty-one books were gaffed deeply.

The filly was cast off by C. T. Littlefield, one of the cleverest of turfmen, after falling sick last fall. A race between Prince Lief, who won by a nose, with Falling Water second, a neck before Gismonda, at Brooklyn September 23 last, at five furlongs, in 1:02 $\frac{1}{4}$ —fast for the track—is an index to her quality. Littlefield thought her the best of the metropolitan fillies and better than most of the colts. It is such as this that dolts in a ring lay 100 and 150 to 1 against. Worse still, they scream when financially punished.

DAILY RACING FORM'S PLAN.

DAILY RACING FORM doesn't blow a horn. The office trumpet was thrown away when it turned out that there were so many others. This paper is not the sporting authority of America, though it outclasses publications that claim to be such. It is intelligent, and truly reflects the action of the American turf—as well as it can by honest effort. DAILY RACING FORM errs at times. Who and what doesn't? The wisest man and thing is the maker of the fewest errors, and he or it that doesn't make the same error twice. We serve all alike. Our charts are pure telegraphic reproductions of the official form of the tracks reported, our prices are what our reporters send, and our general treatment of racing conservative, clean and as knowledgeable as possible. What more can a racing man seek?

Overnight Indexed Charts and Entries.

There are many calls for DAILY RACING FORM's indexed entries. Hereafter they will be furnished at office at 50 cents per track at 9:30 p. m. or sent at subscriber's expense by special messenger at 50 cents per set and messenger fees. A chart of the days racing at the track they cover can be delivered with them for 50 cents more.

Collector's run was a good one. He made up fifteen lengths in the last three furlongs. He would have won with an equal break. Cologne tired when the pinch came. Certita ran a good race.

Time, 12¾, 25, 36½, 49.
Winner—Ch. f. by Woodlands—Minnehaha Belle.
Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won gamely and with a bit left, though tiring on the end; second and third driving hard. The winner is a good filly. She was a trifle short to-day. The races of Lady Juliet and Her Excellency were excellent. Both will be hard to beat in a maiden race. Brescia seemed to be outclassed. Miss Ames had speed but tired.
Scratched—Vite, 94; Some Hopes, 100.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won with something to spare; second handily; third and fourth driving hard. Airlight had speed to give away, but was a trifle short. Nero ran a good race and the boy rode him well. Mollie King was interfered with on first turn. Was coming strong on the end. Starbeam is fast but of little present account. Effie T was poorly handled.

Winner—B. f. 3, by King Galop—Melrose.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth driving also. Evanatus was getting ready to make his run at about the three-eighths pole, when he swerved into Prince. Evanatus was badly cut by Prince in the mix-up. He may not be able to race again this summer. Tom Elmore's race was better. He has not been running to form of late.

Gismondia was full of run and when boy called on her at the three-eighths pole, she went away from the others as though they were tied. The pace was too hot for Serena. Millie M is of no account right now. Gismondia's sudden life was shocking.
